Dear:
It has been real nice knowing you this year. I sup real glad that you weren't in my class this year that's all. (ha ha) Take it easy on your sister this summer, and if she gets a job don't bum to much money off of her efen though she wont give you more than your worth (one cent a week.) To get serious now don't get in to much trouble, and I hope you get to be a senior next year because it would be a shame if you had to go more than you have to. Well like Pat said Take it easy on my little (not really) brother, Vernon, not the baby, and on Donnie & Lattegraff to. I know you will be good this summer and to eat to much or you will get fat (or do I mean fatter) just kidding I hope you know. Well that's about all I can think of so will sign off.

Two roads diverged in a wood, and
I took the one less travelled by,
And that has made all the difference.
—Robert Frost

Symbolic of our lives are the paths we travel upon. Life is a continuous road stretching out before us, offering us the opportunity to plot our own course, and giving us the opportunity to strive toward perfection, each in his own way. There is not one right path for all of us to follow; each must find the one best suited to his own needs and abilities. One may be helped and counseled in finding it, but the final decision must be found within oneself.

It is during our years in school that we are given the opportunity to receive help in plotting our lifes path. The knowledge, experience, fun, and friends we gain in our school years help us to gain a better insight into what we want our life to hold. Situations we encounter daily at school help us to gain confidence in our decisions and give us the experience in order that we may better meet the situations through which our paths will take us. Our success during our school years gives a hint as to what lies ahead. It is true in life, just as it is in school, that one gets only as much out of it as one puts into it.

As we graduate from South, we must realize we have moved one step further on life's road. For some of us graduation will be the end of our formal education; for others, who are now looking forward to college, it will be the beginning to greater knowledge. For all of us, however, regardless of our future plans, the years ahead will be filled with challenges and experiences which will broaden our horizons.

It is our deepest desire that as each one of us goes forward in life on his separate path, we may all realize the dream that—"the higher we rise, the grander the view."

IN MEMORY of a Friend Who Won't Be with Us on Graduation Day

In memory of our classmate, Judy Prok, we the Senior Class of 1958 dedicate this Tiger.

Judy entered South as a freshman and was very active during her two and one-half years here. In her freshman year Judy was a member of the Girls' Swimming Team, Pep Club, and sang tenor in the Mixed Glee Club. She was her homeroom Red Cross representative and a Tiger representative for two years.

She was elected Vice President of Silver Tri in her sophomore year. She enjoyed music and was chosen to be in South's choir as well as her church choir.

Judy was fond of all sport activities. She attended football, hockey, and basketball games, and joined with her homeroom to compete for the volleyball championship. At the end of her sophomore year she was elected cheerleader, but because she could not have both she chose to have choir instead.

Participating on the golf team in her freshmen year helped Judy to be one of the leading golfers on the team in her sophomore year.

In her junior year Judy joined in with twelve of her friends to form a chorus line in the 1957 Sno-Week Program. She was also active in Student Council.

Judy's radiant personality helped to develop her leadership ability and won her many friends. She was elected by her classmates as an outstanding leader of her class.

We, who were personally acquainted with Judy or knew her by face or name only, will always remember Judy's smile, voice, and sweet gestures.

The news didn't reach many of us till Monday in school that Judy had been killed in a car accident on the Saturday night of March 23, 1957. Our school rooms and halls lost their happy talk and laughter to the stunned silence that ruled over us.

Later at the church, the many students and the beautiful bouquets of flowers were evidence of how much we thought of her.

As the years pass on, her image may fade, but Judy Prok's memory will never leave us.

JUDY PROK

So soon you were called from classmates,
Death took you by the hand—,
And lead you from this world of ours
Into the brighter land.
In our hearts you have left a memory
Of your friendly and carefree way.
But that memory glows ever brighter
On this, Our Graduation Day.

CARL LUNDIN — OUR PRINCIPAL

LIKE GARDENERS

Instead of the Earth, Teachers Cultivate the Mind.

Life in a large high school has many facets, not the least of which is the one reflecting the many extra-curricular activities in which students participate. All of these activities contribute so much in helping to build the personality of our school. It is good, therefore, that a record of these activities is made permanent through the publication annually of the Tiger. Out of this continuity of these activities evolves loyalty, school spirit, and respect for high accomplishment which grow into tradition.

There is need, however, for sounding a note of warning. We need ever to be on our guard to see to it that this interest in activities does not eclipse, or even cloud our interest in the basic aim of our total educational program, which is a high standard of accomplishment in the classroom. This school year will always be remembered as the year in which man propelled into space the first artificial satellite to orbit the earth. The significance of this event in the world of science and national security is tremendous, more than we can comprehend at the moment. It points up vividly, the urgent need for revitalizing this interest in high achievement in the classroom. It emphasizes also, the need for more education for everyone. It means, further, that every person should complete his or her high school education and all students with ability must continue their education in college May we hope that all our South High students will meet this challenge.

ELEANOR KINUNEN
Visiting teacher

CLAUDE LAMMERS
Assistant principal

VERA LONG
Nurse

South High School is headed by our principal, Mr. Lundin. Although this is his first year as principal, Mr. Lundin is not new to South. He was the boys' dean for four and a half years—eight years ago. Mr. Lundin is assisted by Mr. Lammers, the assistant principal. Together, they have completed a very successful first year at South. We students appreciate their efforts to make this school year memorable. Both men guide South's policies, helping us in obtaining our school's motto. "Be South."

Our counselors help the students adjust their programs, apply for scholarships, and determine their vocations. They also give advice with personal and family problems. Also helping out with these problems is the visiting teacher.

Influenza, Asiatic and other varieties, gave the administration and the teachers quite a headache this year. The absence list grew to three pages during this time. Classrooms were half filled and in some cases only a third full. The students weren't the only ones who had caught the bug. Many a teacher was home in bed sick. Some classes were without teachers because of lack of substitutes. In the nurses's office, students stood shoulder to shoulder with thermometers in their mouths. In the office phones were busy all day as the attendance clerk checked absentees.

We are proud to have these members as part of our administration.

TRAINING FOR FUTURE OCCUPATIONS

Students Training in School is Necessary for Success.

Punctuality, dependability, accuracy, and speed are important skills for workers. South's commercial students are taught in a true business atmosphere. Although character is important, the skills these people acquire will be their best weapons against competiton.

Many think of the shops as just mechanical subjects. Actually these subjects help a person use his own imagination. Even if the person isn't going into the industrial arts, he can use these skills in just being a handy man around the house.

Most girls hope to get married some day. In South's modern kitchens and sewing rooms, each girl is taught the art of homemaking. The girls learn how to plan a nutritious meal, how to serve the meal, how to budget wisely, and how to promote good family relationships.

No matter what the mood, music always enlightens. One can express his emotions through music to the whole world.

Art is creativeness, and it is another way through which one expresses emotion. The beauty of art is another benefit to mankind.

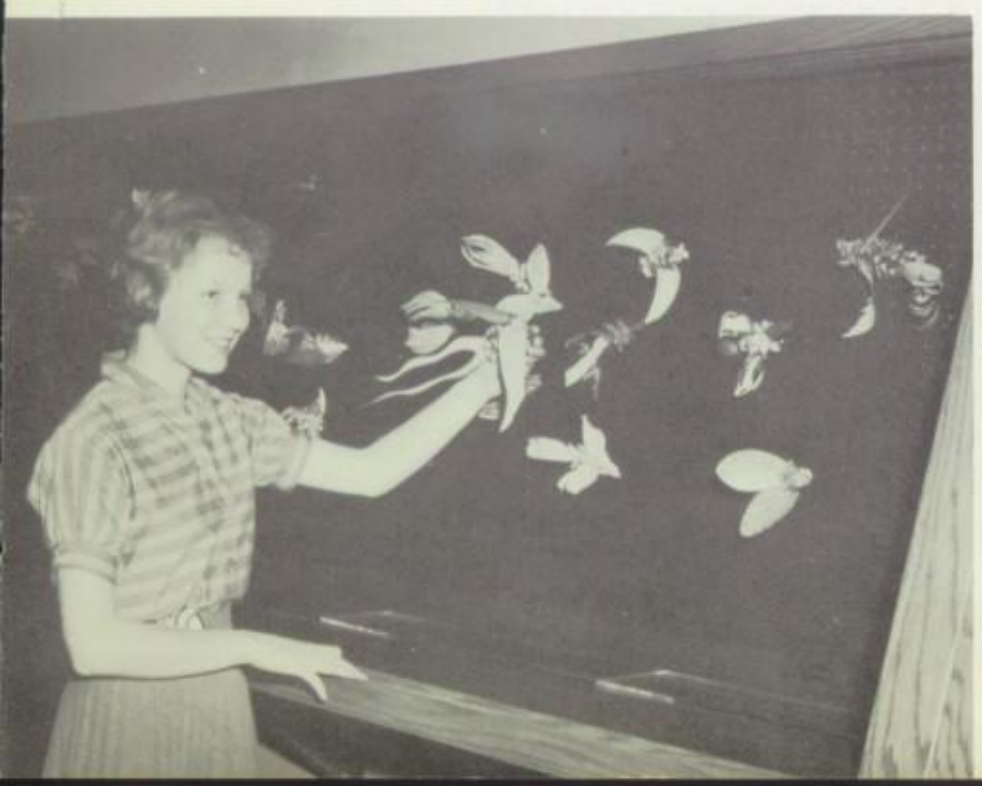
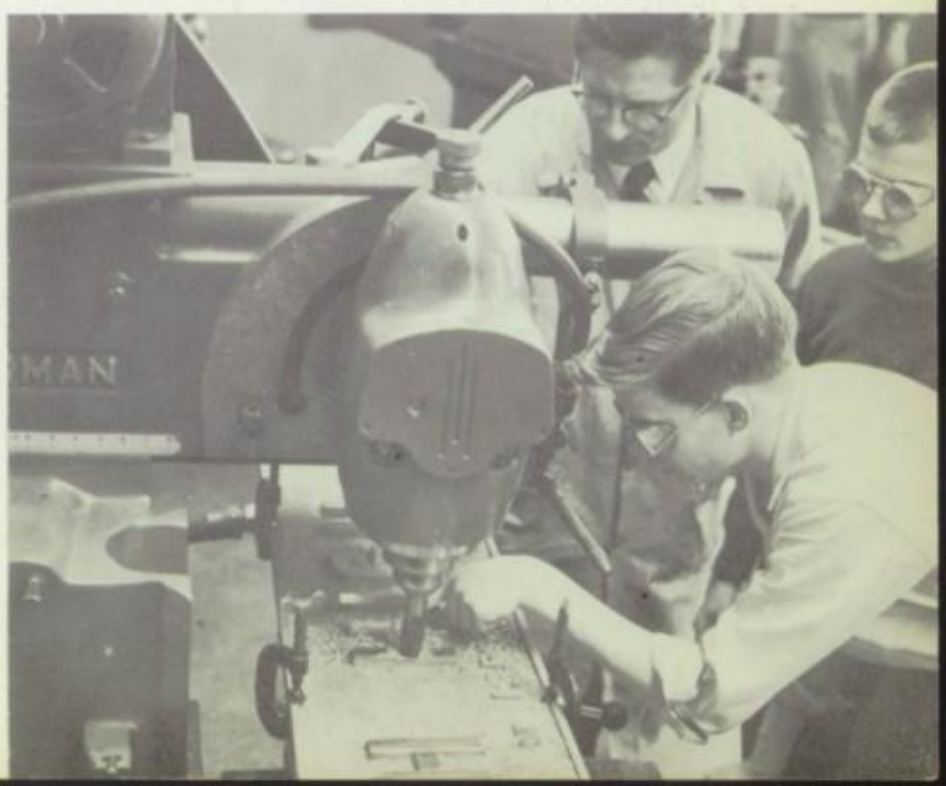
KAREN PEARSON helps display some of the art class' beautiful creations.



LLOYD LAWRENCE and Bruce Ludvigson work on a metal plate under Mr. Petryk's supervision.



SPUTNIK ORBITS INTO OUTER SPACE

Science and Math Instrumental in Bringing "Space Age"

The outstanding scientific achievement of the year, the putting of an artificial moon into orbit, will mark this year as the beginning of the space era. By the application of mathematics and science this feat was accomplished. Mathematicians had to calculate the speeds the rockets needed, the amounts of fuel needed, etc. Scientists and engineers had to apply these calculations in developing more powerful fuel and better rocket designs. Math and science are going to determine World Affairs more every year. Also, job opportunities in our time are going to depend on the amount of science and math a person has acquired.

Another area of education that is becoming more important is the Language Dept., headed by Jerry Arendt. Because of the increase in transportation, the world is becoming smaller every day and the knowledge of a foreign language will help us to understand other countries. Likewise, we must have a knowledge of our own language so we will be able, in later years, to express ourselves effectively.

JAMES HAUGEN: Mathematics, Hi-Y, swimming, assists football. HELEN HEGGEN: English, service point awards. JOHN HODGDON: Industrial arts, stage, custodian of school properties.

RICHARD HOVELSRUD: Occupational relations, Washington's Day Program. EMMA ILLA: Modern problems, American history, Senior Day. LISBETH JENSEN: English .

MILDRED JONES: Librarian, assists Y-teens. LEONE KAUS: World history, Senior budget. JANICE KELLY: Common learnings, domestic science, custodian of band and choir robes and costumes.

RUDOLPH KOGL: Industrial arts, hockey. ARTHUR LAWRENCE: Band, orchestra, drum corps, cheerleaders, music festival. ALVILDA LERE: French, world history, Christmas program.

HELEN LUND: English, school banking. JAMES LUSHINE: Industrial arts, assists football and track, Social and Welfare Committee. LUTHER MONA: Modern problems, American history, basketball, golf.

MADELINE MONSON: English, Modern problems, Senior Banquet. STANLEY NELSON: Bookkeeping, typing, pep fests, driver's training, athletic award day program. STELLA NELSON: World history, American history, mathematics, Y-teens.

FREDERICK VOIGT: shorthand, basic business, secretarial practice, homecoming dance.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE AT SOUTH

Required Courses at South Produce Brains and Brawn.

A combination of physical and mental muscle makes up the required subjects at South. Among these are English, Social Studies, and Gym. English and Social Studies must be taken all four years. Gym is not required in your senior year, but if you want, you may participate in leadership.

The English department tries to train the student to express himself more fully. While taking English you study American, English, and World literature. There are lessons in grammar and outside reading reports. Along with these the correct use of speech is emphasized in class. We also have special English classes that deal with journalism.

It is very important for us to learn how different people live and what they do in order that we may understand the world's problems. Through the Social Studies classes a student is given an understanding of economics, politics, and sociology so that he may help run the nation more intelligently in the future.

The physical education classes that are required not only build strong bodies, but also healthy ones. Along with gym, the students take classes in first aid and health.

FUTURE CITIZENS

Organizations Benefit the Students in Character, Enjoyment, and Experience

One of Souths goals is to turn out a well equipped future citizen. Everyone will agree that academic courses are of great value. Also important in equiping a person in the fashion necessary to meet todays problems is developing a well rounded out personality.

South High School offers a large extracurricular program. The activities provided by this program enable students to work and get acquainted with other students and teachers they might not otherwise get a chance to know.

Learning how to get along with people is an important advantage derived from school organizations, but it is not the only advantage.

Organizations perform beneficial services for the school. Students taking part in a job such as the library helpers, lunchroom helpers, hall guides, and the stage crew are just a few of the many people who help the school to run efficiently throughout the year. The helpers and guides use their spare time before school and in their vacant periods to perform school services.

Having fun is important in just about all age groups and having fun while doing a worthy job accounts for participation of South High students in organizations. When the Southerner staff sponsored a Sadie Hawkins Dance for Thanksgiving, much of the fun was planning and decorating for the dance and then later selling pop to "Li'l Abner" and "Daisy Mae."

For practical experience nothing beats working in the office and in the library.

In order to have a well rounded education one should participate in extracurricular activities.

GOVERNMENT OF, BY, AND FOR THE STUDENTS

Again the Student Body Has Been Representated Through the Council

HERE! The word HERE once again rings out in answer to the Student Council's roll call. The Student Council is exactly what the name states, a council of students representing the entire student body. The council works for the betterment of school conditions and promotes a variety of activities. The leadership of the council consists of the adviser, Mr. Davis, and the cabinet members: President Dick Wicklund, Vice President Don Rasmussen, Recording Secretary Janet Carlson, Corresponding Secretary Karen Karsko, Treasurer Carol Dierke, and Sergeant-at-Arms Bob Lobeck.

With the cabinet's leadership the Student Council has been successful in sponsoring many activities. Leading off these activities was Homecoming 1957 which was follow by Sno-Week.

WOW, LOOK AT THAT NEST EGG GROW

Bankers Collected Money Every Thursday to Help Your Account

It was the small amounts of change collected every Thursday by the homeroom bankers that made that nest egg of yours grow so rapidly. Each banking representative was responsible for an accurate record of all the money turned in by each of the students that had bank accounts. For those bankers, who had the largest number of students in their homeroom banking, a Thrift Banquet was held at the Nicollet Hotel. Because many students don't realize the importance of saving, they do not have a bank account. Those who do, however, realize the wonderful habit of saving money that a bank account gives you for later life.

As the school year draws to a close many of the seniors recognize the need for a bank account. Let this be a warning to all you underclassmen!

Miss Kause, the advisor of the bankers, commends these people on a fine year with good work done by all.

BUSY WORKERS

Office Helpers Are Busy

On the go all periods of the day are the student office helpers. The regular office staff plus the counselors receive great assistance from the student helpers. Keeping the hundreds of calls, which come into the switchboard daily, flowing quickly to their destinations is one of the many jobs handled by these students. Delivering important messages to and from the counselors is also a job the helpers take care of. With the use of the telephone the office aids check on absentees throughout the course of the day. Much work is put into the job of office helpers, but much experience is gained which will be of value after graduation. Service points are also awarded to all students who participate in this office work.

BOOK WORMS' HELPERS

Library Aids Work Diligently

Friendly help is given to all by the efficent library assistants. These girls are the ones who send out those familar green over due slips. The checking in and out of library books is another responsibility of library helpers. Shelving the many books that are returned each day is still another task performed by these volunteers. They give up one period a day to perform the duties assigned to them. At the end of the year service points are awarded to all girls who participated in the year's program.

TIGER SALESMEN

The Tiger Representatives Are the Sellers And Circulators of Our South High Yearbook

Collecting money for the annual is not an easy task, but one that must be done. This job is handled by our Tiger representatives. Accurate accounts must be kept of all payments that are turned in by the students. Each homeroom has a representative who tells his homeroom exactly why they should buy the Tiger, encourages the pupils to contract for the book at the ending of the year, and keeps records of the payments. This promotion work of the representatives helps further the circulation of the annual. South has a student body of approximately 1500 students; Of this number about 1200 students buy the annual.

Each year a copy of the annual is given to the representatives in each grade level who turn in all their homerooms' payments first, and a box of candy is given to the room in each grade level which turn's it's money in first.

THERMOMETERS RISING HIGHER

Red Cross Thermometers Show Rise in Funds

This year the Red Cross has held a money collection drive instead of distributing the usual gift boxes to be filled. The Red Cross committee decided that many more useful articles could be bought with the money.

The Red Cross members worked very hard making and putting up posters and dreaming up publicity in order to make the drive a success. They also had a big job in collecting the money.

As in other extra curricular activities, the Red Cross members received service points.

DEADLINES MET

Tiger Staff Achieves Goal

As the 1958 Tiger rolls off the press, we look back at all the trials and tribulations we went through to present this book to the students of South High. We remember the many times we had to go over the layouts and rewrite the copy, the many times we argued over the cover design, and how we ran around getting names for the homeroom pictures. Between these and all the other various mixups we had, we thought we'd never get it done.

The biggest obstacle that presented itself was getting an appropriate and original theme and presenting it. After batting around too many ideas, we finally agreed on one. It took a full year of hard work (it also involved lots of fun), but seeing the finished book was a real thrill.

HUSTLING REPORTERS

Southerner Staff Reports News

No one except the members of the Southerner Staff knows how much work and trouble goes into putting out a school paper. There are layouts to be drawn and copy to be written. The layouts show just where on the page pictures and copy should be placed. The work isn't just for one person; it is divided evenly over the Southerner Staff. Every day the staff is hustling to get information on school events and incidents connected with South High students and faculty.

The members of the Southerner Staff have to know quite a lot about how to use the English language. Naturally, they know a lot about the newspaper business. Their knowledge of the newspaper work came from their able advisor, Mrs. Brand.

LUNCH TIME OFFICIALS

Hall Guides and Lunchroom Help

"We didn't get past those hall guides that time either." That mournful statement indicates that watchful hall guides were on their toes to keep students from the upper halls during the noon hour.

Collecting money for the milk and lunches was done by Mrs. Gunderson's lunchroom helpers.

Both groups aid in keeping order during the feeding of most of South's 1500 hungry students. They illustrate that student government can work.

ALWAYS IN SERVICE

Stage and Projection Crews

Out goes the house lights, and the curtain opens. Now come with us behind stage to see who is doing this job. There is Mr. Hodgdon and his stage crew hands. Using the equipment in the auditorium, the stage crew was ready to assist in producing another program.

The projection crew, whose adviser is Mr. Petryk, shows educational films in the little theater and in classrooms to assist instruction.

GIRL FRIDAY

Leadership Girls Take Over Gym

What a class! This statement and many more can be heard coming from the leadership girls after an hour in the gym classes. Besides putting the students through their exercises, helping them with their skills in basketball, football, and rhythm, the leadership girls' main jobs are to take attendance, grade the students, and in general, help the teachers.

The leadership girls are chosen in their sophomore year for their ability, leadership, and character. In their junior year, they are put through their training before becoming the "Girl Friday" of the gym classes.

ACTIVE AND SPIRITED NOT BLUE AT ALL

Blue Tri Girls Sponsor Many Activities for Recreation and Service

Fellowship, fellows and fun were a part of the regular school year meetings for Blue Tri Girls. A fall style show began the year with a bang. It was followed by joint meetings with Hi-Y's of various schools including Marshall and Roosevelt. Thanksgiving brought about a service project. Baskets were filled for needy families. Christmas meant a holiday party so we had one with our own Hi-Y. The big project of the year was the Sweetheart Swirl, a formal dance, open to the whole school. The profits from this and other activities sponsored by the Blue Tri helped to send representatives to the regional conference at Gustavus Adolphus College. An International Fair was put on in the spring. Each school was represented. South sponsored a turtle race. Many car washes were held to build up the treasury for next year. Towards graduation the underclassmen gave a farewell party for the seniors. Blue Tri is a branch of the YWCA.

SCHOLARLY CITIZENS

Honor Society Is Club of Elite

Each year at a special auditorium in the spring new members are admitted to the National Honor Society. The Honor Society is a organization for those students outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

During the course of the year the Society undertook the Community Chest Drive besides holding various social activities. Topping the list of activities was the plane trip they took to Rochester, Minnesota.

SVITHIOD?

It's Swedish Club in Disguise

The Swedish club, Svithiod as it is known to the members, is the oldest active club at South. As in previous years several meetings were held at the home of Svithiod's advisor Mrs. Peterson and some were held at homes of the members. Plans were made at these meetings to organize other activities of the club.

This year the club had various business meetings at which the financial status of the club was given, and movies which had a direct contact with Sweden were shown. Rating high with all the members were the activities that the club held. The Christmas party was tops with everyone, but no one will forget the bowling and skating parties either.

FELLOWSHIP FOR ALL

Hi C Mixes Religion and Fun

This year South's Hi C had a wonderful year of fun, fellowship, and inspiration. This has been accomplished through various parties, weekly meetings, city wide events, and morning prayer meetings.

SOUTH BIRDS

German Club Uses Its Language

Sudvogel, which means birds of South, got off to a good start this year with a hayride. The executives, consisting of the President, Pam Fagre; Vice President, Bob Olson; Treasurer, Mike Carlson; and Secretary, Marlene Fischer, plan the activities in which the German Club participates.

The German Congress, a biannual event, gives German students a chance to see what other schools are doing and gives a chance to make practical use of the German language for a day.

The German Club, under the supervision of Mr. Arendt, is open to all those partaking in the study of the German language and to those who have already studied it.

FORTY YEARS OF GIRLS
G.A.A. Stresses Sportsmanship

The Girls' Athletic Association has helped to create a spirit of friendliness among the girls at South High since it was organized forty years ago in 1918. The organization is open to all girls. The members compete against each other in friendly rivalry for the various championships and awards. In addition to sports activities, the G.A.A. members have at least three parties a year.

NOT AT SCHOOL
Hi-Y Meets at Southtown YMCA

The Hi-Y Club is the only organization at South that never holds its meetings in the school. Instead, the club meets every Tuesday at the Southtown "Y". Well-known speakers often talk to the boys on religious and educational matters.

The YMCA offers its members such recreational activities as basketball, baseball, swimming, and horseback riding.

VOICES IN HARMONY

The Choir Demonstrates Skill

"Okay, let's do that over again." This is one of Mr. Harding's familar phrases, heard third hour during choir.

The choir is one of the busiest organizations throughout the school year. Long before Christmas they began practice for their many appearances. Accompanied by the other choral groups, the choir sang for such programs as the Christmas and Easter concerts. They presented inspiring and well-organized programs on their choir trip and at Bloomington High School. They were received very well everywhere they performed.

Every member worked hard throughout the year and contributed much to make the choir a success.

Mr. Harding has added something new this year. He chose a group of sixteen people known as the South Singers, to sing for special occasions and programs. He hopes to carry out this idea again next year.

The student body appreciates the efforts of Mr. Harding in developing a choir which has done so much to build up good public relations for South High.

POSTURE AND VOLUME

Girls' Glee Club Learns Singing Art

Every morning, first hour, Mr. Harding is greeted by the smiling faces of eighty-five members of the Girls' Glee Club.

The organization consists of mostly freshmen and sophomores. This is Mr. Harding's first year at South, and he is working very hard to make the Girls' Glee Club bigger and better than ever.

Girls' Glee is an elective subject and any girl who is interested in music would enjoy singing with the group.

The Girls' Glee Club assisted in providing music for the Christmas and Easter Concerts and also for the baccalaureate services.

Working hard on breathing exercises and vocal drills is just part of their every-day work. Good posture is another necessity in singing correctly. There was a lot of hard work and practice through the year, but every girl enjoyed it and hoped that her experience in Girls' Glee Club would help her to become a member of the choir.

HOPEFUL SINGERS

Choralers Aspire to Choir

Future choir members get valuable training in th Choral Club. Not only the enjoyment, but also the technique of singing is learned. They assist the choir in their performance of the annual Christmas Concert and Easter program. They often sing at the Baccalaureate service and many other programs.

The Choral Club met sixth hour each day. Most of the time was spent in group singing although sometimes they would break up into quartets. Hearing their voices recorded was not only fun, but it helped them to eliminate their mistakes. The songs that they sang ranged from popular hits to religious hymns.

Although they don't get the opportunity to go on a trip or sing on television each member has a good time and meets many new friends.

The Choral Club is an elective course which is open to students of all grades. Participants receive a credit for the year.

BOUNCING BEAUTIES—SPIRIT, PEP, VITALITY

The Energetic Cheerleaders Lead School Spirit at Sports' Events

"O.K., everybody, let's go with a big Snap Clap." Usually, it was Carol Hermann who uttered this phrase as the student body sat at a pep fest. The cheerleaders are always trying to booster student moral by making posters and buttons, and by putting on skits in the auditorium. Remember the day the cheerleaders presented to us the cheers of all the years—from the roaring twenties to the space age?

The cheerleaders are at all of our games ready to give the team the backing they need. They were there to cheer, to lead our cheering, to give confidence to our teams, and to represent South in their bright orange and black costumes.

VERY TALKATIVE

Debate Club Has Gift of Gab

Affirmative and negative are two well-known words of the debate teams. The Debate Club discusses special topics both pro and con in city-wide competition. With their differences of opinion there is never a dull moment in the club, and this makes for spirited debates.

INSTRUMENTALLY

Orchestra and Band Make Music

"One, two, three," after the down beat come the strains of popular and semi-classical music played by the South High band and orchestra.

Each year the band and the orchestra have a mixture of old and new talent, each working with the other to bring forth melodies.

These two musical groups use their talent in many ways among which are performing at the annual Christmas concert, supplying music during the class play's intermissions, and performing at the annual spring concert and many auditoriums. The band provides musical entertainment for special athletic tournaments such as football, basketball, and hockey games.

These two groups provide an opportunity for musical training and recreation.

Playing good music for its audience is what the band and orchestra attempt to achieve. Each member practices faithfully ensuring the director, Arthur Lawrence of bringing forth appreciable music.

South's instrumental department has received many thanks for contributing to the success of many activities.

THAT OLD GANG

In Homerooms Friends Are Made Old Friendships Strengthened

To the incoming exuberant freshmen, South High School is often a rather breath-taking experience! His is the world of blissful ignorance and bewildering answers. He is likely to spend so long looking for the elevators and left-handed monkey wrenches that he has little time for conventional extra-curricular activities.

It isn't long, however, before he will be a real Tiger taking part in club activities, attending games, and hollering with a spirit that he never knew he possessed.

After struggling through two years of bad auditorium seats, he finally gets in a section where he can see and hear.

Report cards are "old stuff" now. Coaxing library passes from teachers so that he doesn't have to sit in study hall is becoming a regular habit.

He is rapidly becoming a part of South and is helping to fulfill her proud tradition—Be South.

Now he is a junior and full of expectation. Soon he will be attending the Senior Banquet, Senior Prom, and all those Senior meetings in the auditorium while the underclassmen are slaving away in class during a floating period.

Then suddenly expectation becomes realization, but in the whirl of the senior year he has hardly time to savor the experience. Like "Sputnik" it streaks by leaving the impression of missed opportunities, regrets, and tendency to tell younger acquaintances they should realize how wonderful their schooldays are.

END OF AN ERA

As Tigers Take Twin City Title Barnard Announces Retirement

The 1957 football team once again brought athletic glory to South High. At the start of the season we were not ranked among the top teams in the city conference, but by the end of the season coach Les Bernard and his assistants had shaped the team into Twin City Champions and one of the top-ranked teams in the state.

Coach Bernard, having indicated that this would be his last season of coaching at South, wound up a thirty-year tradition here by going out as he came in——with a City Championship. Les saw his team climax a victorious season by defeating St. Paul Central 25 to 19 for the Twin City Championship. The Tigers had ended the regular season in a championship tie with Washburn, a team we had defeated earlier in the season. A vote was taken of the high school football coaches, and South was selected to represent Minneapolis in the Twin City Game.

The season was marked by the powerful play of the Tigers on both offense and defense. A two-platoon system was used throughout the season, and special credit should be given to line coach, Al Pihlstrom, who had both lines thoroughly schooled in the fundamentals. The support shown the team by the student body was outstanding and reached its peak in the T.C. game when nearly the whole school turned out to cheer their team to victory.

VICTORY
South over St. Paul
Central 25 to 19

Two things marred the 1957 football season for the Tigers. The first one was the defeat at the hands of West in the last game of the regular season. This loss was heartbreaking to the coaching staff, the team, and to the whole student body. The second bad break came when the North High team came down with the Asian Flu and had to forfeit their game with us. That was to have been our homecoming game; but nevertheless, a game was played. The South second team defeated the first team in an intersquad game played after the homecoming program.

Throughout the season a number of South players were singled out for special praise because of their abilities. Co-captain, Jerry Ferguson, was given nearly every football honor possible for a high school athlete. He was named all of the following: All-City team, All-State team, Most Valuable Player in the City, Back of the Week, Prep Star of the Week.

The other co-captain, Phil Evan, was named on the All-City team and given honorable mention on the All-State team.

Richard McDonald, a fine end and our kick-off man, was named to the All-City second team.

Each game saw some new player come into his own and bolster either the Tiger defense or offense. The hard work of the line and Ferguson in the backfield led to our victory over Vocational.

The toughest game in the season was with Washburn. Revak on offense, and the whole defensive team, led by Walt Billups, stopped the Miller's attack. For his outstanding play in that game Rich Revak was named Back of the Week. Again and again he carried Washburn tacklers with him as he plunged for first downs.

It wasn't until the Marshall game that Mike McClure, a fleet halfback, began carrying the ball. For his work in that game he was Back of the Week and Prep Star of the Week. The next week in our loss to West, it was again McClure whose speed and craftiness kept the Tigers in the game.

When the chips were down in the Twin City game, Jerry Ferguson and Phil Evan again led the way to victory.

Cagers Overcome Obstacles To Record a 6-4 Season

This year's cagers ended an above-average season with a respectable 6-4 record. After getting off to a disappointing start with two straight losses, the Tigers suddenly caught fire and won their next five games. Instrumental in these wins was our high scoring center, Eric Magdanz, and a great play-making guard, Al Dixon. Then, the team ran into tough going against Central and Roosevelt, and we were defeated by scores of 56-50 and 50-45. Coach Lute Mona ran into one trouble after another as he tried to keep his team in contention throughout the season. One of the team's very promising juniors, Randy Haegele, was injured with the season just two games old, and didn't recover enough to play until the last game of the season.

Losing Bob Puckett through ineligibility was a hard blow for the team to take, and yet they fought back. Holding the team together was Captain Ron Swanson, and supplying the scoring punch was Magdanz, who wound up as city scoring champ with 240 points.

For his outstanding play Eric was both All-City and All-District.

AN OFF YEAR

Hockey Team Ends Season With a Disappointing 3-6-1 Record

After losing fourteen players from last year's championship team, Coach Rudy Kogl started his season with a big rebuilding job before him. Much of the load was heaped on the shoulders of two of the team's three returning lettermen, Don Rasmussen and Gary Bartholomew.

The hockey team compiled one of the poorest records we have had in that sport for some time with a 3-6-1 record. Bad breaks hampered the Tigers, but our main weakness was inexperience. Unseasonable warm weather at the seasons start made practice impossible and the team went into its first few games without enough preparation. Coach Kogl switched his lines and defensemen around and wound up by putting Rasmussen on defense, and had Bartholomew centering his first line.

After losing three straight to West, Henry, and Washburn, respectively, Kogl's lineup juggling paid off in the form of a victory over Marshall. Midway through the season the team got a big lift with the addition of a new goalie, Wayne King, who came to South from Duluth East. He was able to help sophomore goalie Jim Puckett out, and tighten up the Tiger defense.

The team never gave up and finished the season with a win over Vocational 7 to 0.

DIAMONDMEN

Leading Coach Walt Butterwick's baseball team this year are co-captains Jerry Keavy and Arlen "Dubby" Baardson. The team this year is expected to be strong in the pitching department with starters from last year, John Ogren and Rich McDonald. Backing them up will be two strong southpaws, Larry Hall and Walt Kaminski.

Hitting could turn out to be the Tigers weak point; but if Al Dixon, the teams hard hitting second sacker, delivers like he has so far in the practice games and Keavy hits like he did last season, they could be the punch the team needs. The teams aim this year is to improve on last year's 6 win, 4 loss record, which was good enough for second place in the Southern Division.

RACQUETMEN

Returning lettermen on this year's tennis team are Tom Mattison, Ron Rengel, Phil Isaacson, and Dick Erickson. On these four boys, with the addition of another senior, Harvey Huisenfeldt, Coach Rainey is laying his hope for a good season.

A pair of juniors, Dave Olson and Bob Brown, are trying hard to hold the second doubles spot, but they're getting strong competition from Dick Swanson and Bruce Ludvigson, a pair of talented sophomores.

LINKSTERS

Lute Mona in his first year as golf coach is looking forward to a successful season. With three lettermen Gary Svendahl and the Horn brothers, Jerry and Bob, back from last year's team, Coach Mona is confident that with a little luck the team will be able to pull a few surprises during the season. Svendahl is the top returning golfer and so far this year in practice rounds he has consistently shot in the low 70's.

The big job this year will be making up for the loss of Doug Grottum, one of the top golfers in the city last year, who graduated.

TRACKSTERS

In his last year as track coach, Les Barnard is looking forward to an above-average season. Elected co-captains of this year's team were Walt Billups and Jerry Ferguson, two of the stars on our championship football team. Ferguson, who Barnard calls, "one of the greatest all-around athletes ever to star at South," is expected to be the top hurdler in the city, if not in the state, this year. Already this year he has broken one record in the hurdles and tied another. Giving the team strength in the dashes will be Welton Shelton, and if the brother combination of Mike and Marv McClure come through in the 440 yard dash, the team will have championship possibilities. Co-captain Walt Billups has improved steadily from last year in the shot put and the discus, and his leadership, mixed with humor, makes him an important member of the team.

CROSS COUNTRY

South's Cross-country team, coached by John Cumming, and led by Bob Gabrick and Mike King, finished the season with a 4-5 record.

The flu bug hampered the team in the city and state meets. Because of this the team didn't make a representative showing.

Coach Cumming comments that this year's team made a good showing and that the boys have all shown a great deal of improvement.

Pete Sjogren and Mike King, along with six freshmen lettermen, show great promise for future seasons.

A three-year veteran of the Harriers is senior Bob Gabrick. Dick Anderson, who has just finished his first season, is also a senior. Bob and Dick are the only Harriers to be lost because of graduation this June.

TANKERS

This year's Swimming team captained by Ebe "Tank" Treptow, and coached by Jim Haugen, ended its season with a two win eight loss record. This record, although not being good, is not too poor considering South's swimming in past seasons. The team's leading scorer was Denny Anderson, who earned 61 points in the dives and breast-stroke. Right behind Denny were Dick Rein and Ebe Treptow.

Dick compiled 55 points in the forty and hundred yard freestyle events, and Ebe had 52 points and six firsts in the 200 yard freestyle. The other senior lettermen on the team were Jim Smith, Dave Skare, and Dave Bailey. Prospects look good for next year, as there will be four returning lettermen.

GYMNASTS

This year's gymnastic team, coached by Mr. Bambenek, was at a big disadvantage in their city meets because of the small team South had. With only nine members, five of whom were returning lettermen, the team had a disappointing season. The team made its best showing in the "C" class, but because the squad was outnumbered eight to three in most of the meets the boys had rough going. Jeff Elsesser, Denny Anderson and Mike Carlson are the three graduating seniors who will be missed next year. Of the three, Jeff Elsesser had the best year, qualifying for the state meet on the horizontal bar and on the mats. Prospects for next year aren't bright unless a number of new boys come out for the team.

FERGUSON has Johnson of Marshall nearly pinned but the referee won't call it.

GRAPPLERS

This years grapplers, although they did not accumulate an outstanding team record, distinguished themselves in several weight classes. Coached by Robert Rainey, and led by Capt. Jerry Ferguson, the teams city record of 1 win and 7 losses was not indicative of some of the fine individual performances. Dave Fischer, who is only a freshman, won the city 95 lb, championship and was runner-up in the district. The most outstanding wrestler on the team was Jerry Ferguson, who in his fourth year of wrestling at South, won both the city and district 165 lb. championship. Coach Rainey commented, "Everyone will be back next year except Ferguson. With some help and a little luck, South should have an excellent team next season."

REMEMBER THAT OLD SONG "SCHOOL DAYS"

Activities Now Make Up an Important Part of School

School life is supposed to be made of the 3R's, Readin', 'Ritin', 'Rithmetic. There is also another phase of life that is as important to the well being of the students as are the 3R's, and that phase of school life is Activities.

Activities are not for recreation alone, but to promote and bring about understanding, teamwork, and close ties between students, which makes school life more enjoyable.

Homecoming, Sno-Week, various dances, auditoriums, pep fests—these are only a few of the many activities which play a important part of the lives of the students. The students are able to work together, accept responsibilities, organize, gain leadership and become worth-while citizens and assets to their community by working on these activities.

Being an active and versatile student in many organizations and clubs brings about a warm feeling of satisfaction in schooling and helps prepare you for life after graduation.

Tigers Can't "Rak The Polar Pak", But Frolic Anyway at Homecoming

October 11th was a day of much anxiety and excitement. It was a day everyone was waiting for—one when we'd see the familiar faces of alumni who would come back to their Alma Mater. The tension heightened while the day progressed, and we saw orange and black pom-poms and Homecoming buttons which almost shouted our slogan, "Rak the Polar Pak." At the end of sixth period we hurried to the auditorium to watch the program. Pantomimes, chorus lines, dances, and songs called forth laughter and applause. Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, Tom Mattison and Carol Dierke, kept us laughing between acts.

As the orchestra burst forth with "Pomp and Circumstance", we were introduced to our King and Queen candidates. We were delirious with expectancy as Cathy Newgard and Jim Ekberg came forth to crown their successors. To the roll of drums, the crowns were placed on Lucille Overstreet and Denny Buland.

So-Hi, , our four-foot-high Tiger mascot, was introduced to us by our co-captains, Phil Evan and Jerry Ferguson.

Due to a forfeit from North, an intramural squad consisting of varsity, bombers and sophomores played. They were coached by Jerry Ferguson, Phil Evan and Dick Revak. From eight o'clock to eleven-thirty we danced to the music of Dick Erickson.

All in all, the eleventh day of October, 1957, South's Homecoming, was a big and glorious day for all.

CAROL DIERKE and Tom Mattison were M.C.s of the program.

SNO-WEEK

Sno-Week arrived once again to provide fun and enjoyment for the whole student body, thru a series of spectacular and enjoyable events.

This year, 1958, South's annual winter celebration started out with the traditional sale of the Sno-Week beanies. That night to help get the excitement going, a skating party was held at the Minneapolis Arena. South's hockey team played an exhibition game with the alumni and there was also a girls' broom hockey game.

The following day proved to be very colorful. Brilliant colors, stripes, plaids, polka dots,—all these added to the confusion of the day, plus the fact that clothes as well as classes were turned backwards.

On Wednesday, Student Government Day was held. The students took over the teachers' jobs and the teachers once again became students.

Thursday was Howdy Day, a very friendly day at South. Many new friends were made, and the students became better acquainted with their fellow classmates. That night all the Tiger "fire bugs" attended the big bonfire on the practice football field.

To top off a very memorable week, on Friday the big "Sno-Daze" auditorium was held. Berta Comer and Denny Hagen, M.C.'s of the program, presented to the audience a number of singing acts and a Little New Skit. Then, with the rolling of the drums and the playing of Pomp and Circumstance, Betty Schuffenhauer, Senior from Homeroom 112, was crowned Sno-Week Queen. That night the annual Sno-Week dance was held in the lunchroom and was a big success. This was a week that many of us will never forget.

THE GIRLS' broom hockey game was one of the highlights of the Sno-Week skating party.

SCHOOL LIFE

Students Find Many Activities in a Well-Rounded School Year

ONCE AGAIN Homeroom 105 came through and won the Homeroom Volleyball Championship. They have won the championship for the past three years. The team also beat the faculty by a score of 52 to 50. Pictured at the left is the winning team which consists of the following: Row 1: Smith, R. Puckett, Brown, Sorenson. Row 2: C. Puckett, R. Olsen, G. Olson, Meyer, Isaccson. Row 3: Kmit, Revak, Erickson, Treptow.

KAREN KARSKO works diligently at shining Tom Mattison's shoes during G.P.A. Week, April 14-18. G.P.A. Week was a week when the girls payed for all. The girls were to show the boys how they wished to be treated. The calendar for the week started out with Courtesy Day, when the girls carried the boy's books, opened the doors, and held the drinking fountains for them. On Tuesday there was a weiner roast to which the boys were invited by the girls. Wednesday was Shoe Shine Day, and on Thursday the girls bought lunches for the boys. Friday there was a dance at Benton Hall to end up a most successful week, enjoyed by all.

SO SHORT A TIME

Fun And Work Lead To Commencement

Graduation time is here again! Many of us thought this day would never arrive, but here it is, right on top of us! Some of us will be furthering our education by attending college, others will be hunting for jobs, and still others will be getting married.

There are many memories of high school which will follow us throughout the days of our lives. For instance there was our first day at South as a freshman. The big seniors stared down on us, wondering if we still didn't belong in grade school. We got lost, trying to find out which classroom we belonged in. Those were the days!

Then, finally, we became seniors. Now we could look down at the new freshmen and wonder about them. Remember Homecoming and sitting in our seats and wondering who would be our King and Queen? Then, there was the football game between the Varsity and the B-Squad. That was some game. Then, of course, there were the hockey and basketball games. Who will ever forget those?

The Senior Banquet, the Prom, and Senior Day were occasions we will never forget!

But then it wasn't only fun either. There was a lot of hard work involved in preparation for graduation. Although the realization of what high school has really meant to us had perhaps never hit us until now, it is one of those things which will never leave us.

We will always remember the friends we made, our advisors, our teachers, and all the fun and hard work we put in to help prepare ourselves for the future.

A SUCCESSFUL TEAM IN OUR SENIOR YEAR

Five Class Officers and Eleven Advisors Lead the Senior Class

Few actually realize what the senior advisor does behind the scene. Many of the advisors take the responsibilities of the senior activities upon themselves. The Senior Banquet, the Prom, Senior Day, Baccalaureate, and Commencement are headed by our advisors, who guide us in making and completing our plans. As we see these activities unfold into successful occasions, we hardly ever realize the planning and work which has gone into these activities. Without the guidance of our senior advisors we would probably be at a loss in our activity planning and have a very unsuccessful senior year.

The senior class officers also take a very active part in making our senior year a very successful one. They work closely with our advisors in the planning of senior activities. These people were chosen by their classmates because they had the qualities of leadership and were cooperative and friendly with their classmates and teachers.

Thanks to the senior advisors and senior class officers we have had a very successful year with memories which will last a lifetime!

SOUTH HIGH'S TOP STUDENTS GET RECOGNITION

Members of Honor Groups Lead 1958 Senior Class In Scholarship

What is scholarship? Why is it so important? In school, grades have become the symbol of scholarship. In life, scholarship means not only knowledge but also the wise use of this knowledge.

Each marking period there is a list made out, the honor roll, which names those students who have earned an honor point average of 2.3, which is equivalent to a B plus average. Right below those are the students who have attained honorable mention, which requires at least a 2.0 average. All of those students who consistently make one of these lists can feel justifiably proud of their scholastic accomplishments.

However, the honor roll is not the only way in which students are honored for outstanding scholastic achievement. Each year, a select group of students are singled out for their exceptional scholastic record and their outstanding character, leadership, and participation in school activities. These people become members of the Honor Society, a nationwide organization of top high school students.

At many schools, the top scholastic honor that can be won is being named valedictorian or salutatorian. At South this year, this tradition has been changed and in its place we have an Honor Group composed of approximately the top 3% of the senior class, which this year are those with over a 2.68 honor point rating.

Nevertheless, scholastic accomplishments are only important if they truly represent the knowledge gained from a student's efforts. It would be wise for all of us to remember the advice of Benjamin Franklin. "An investment in knowledge pays the best interest."

These Students Represent the Top Eleven in the '58 Senior Class. (Left to Right:) S. Rowelson, R. Rengel, A. Gould, S. Larson, B. Scott, F. Vare, B. Herkal, R. Rein, M. Utterberg, G. Towne, M. Brown.

Sept. 6—Opening of School

Jan. 20-24—Sno-Week

Certain events in our senior year stood out more than others. Those high spots became more significant because this was the last time that we as students would experience them.

The opening of school was notable because at last we were seniors. Homecoming is always a big event, but this year it seemed even bigger. Sno-Week, the Class Play, and the Senior Banquet followed in rapid succession. Finally, our Senior Prom, which signalized that the end of school was just around the corner. Baccalaureate preceded the most important day of our lives—Graduation.

For helping us to produce this memory book of 1957-58, we would like to thank the H. Larson Photography Studio and the Bureau of Engraving Printers.

"COME OVER TO OUR HOUSE"

Senior Class Play Presented on March 13, 14

"Come Over To Our House," a three-act comedy portraying the problems and joys of a typical American family, was presented on the evenings of March 13 and 14.

The plot of the play revolves around a teenager by the name of Jay Eldridge, who is offered a Hollywood contract. The entire play takes place in the living room of the Eldridge home.

Butch Reynolds, an unco-ordinated and ever-hungry teenager, spends most of his time with Marion Eldridge, the loud-mouth of the Eldridge family. Lindy Eldridge has her troubles too, especially with her boy friend Hugo and a blond bombshell named Evie Cannon, who has her own ideas about Hugo.

When Amanda Eldridge announces her engagement to Mr. King, the children—Lindy, Marion, and Jay—try to quash it by showing Mr. King the worst side of their characters. This attempt eventually succeeds, and Mrs. Eldridge ends up with Stephen Reynolds, the father of Butch and his mischievous little sister, Hildred.

Everything turns out all right when Jay decides not to go to Hollywood but to continue to play the piano. Lindy and Hugo get back together again, and the neighborhood finally gets some peace.

Through the efforts of Karen Karsko, student director, and Mr. Davis, faculty director, and, of course, those of both casts, the play proved to be a big success.

CENTENNIAL SERENADE

1958 Senior Banquet Reviews In Music The Past 100 Years

The sensational program, "Centennial Serenade," opened a one-night stand at the South High Senior Banquet, April 24, 1958, in Dayton's Skyroom.

Those crazy characters, Carol Hermann and Roger Hiland, did a terrific job as mistress and master of ceremonies. Acts of the program were arranged according to their occurrence in time. Carol Dierke and Dick Wicklund, who began the show, made a striking couple representing the 1890's. The "Old Soft Shoe," performed by Mary Brown, Carol Dierke, Carole Meyer, and Lucy Overstreet, was set off by the barbershop quartet consisting of Tom Mattison, Al Satter, Ron Swanson, and Floyd Vare.

Bev Seeker, Shirley Nelson, and Nancy Santos danced a great "Charleston."

Ron Rengel made a beautiful hula dancer, and the sailors—Kendra Kavanaugh, Connie Corcoran, Mary Dupont, and Ruth Rodewald—were hypnotized by her(him?).

Maggie Rhodes contributed to the program singing "Our Rendezvous."

To signify the "Rock and Roll Age," Denny and Roger Anderson sang "Dream" and "Bye, Bye Love."

All of this entertainment and the excellent dinner that was served contributed some life-long memories.

NIGHT OF EXCITEMENT

1958 Senior Prom Held May 9

One hundred and twenty couples danced to the music of Al Noyce and his band as the 1958 Senior Prom was held at the Columbia Chalet.

The fellows in their formal white dinner jackets and boutonnieres and the girls in their formals and corsages presented a beautiful and breath-taking sight as they whirled across the floor.

Refreshments consisting of punch and cookies, were served during the evening and ice cream and pop were sold downstairs.

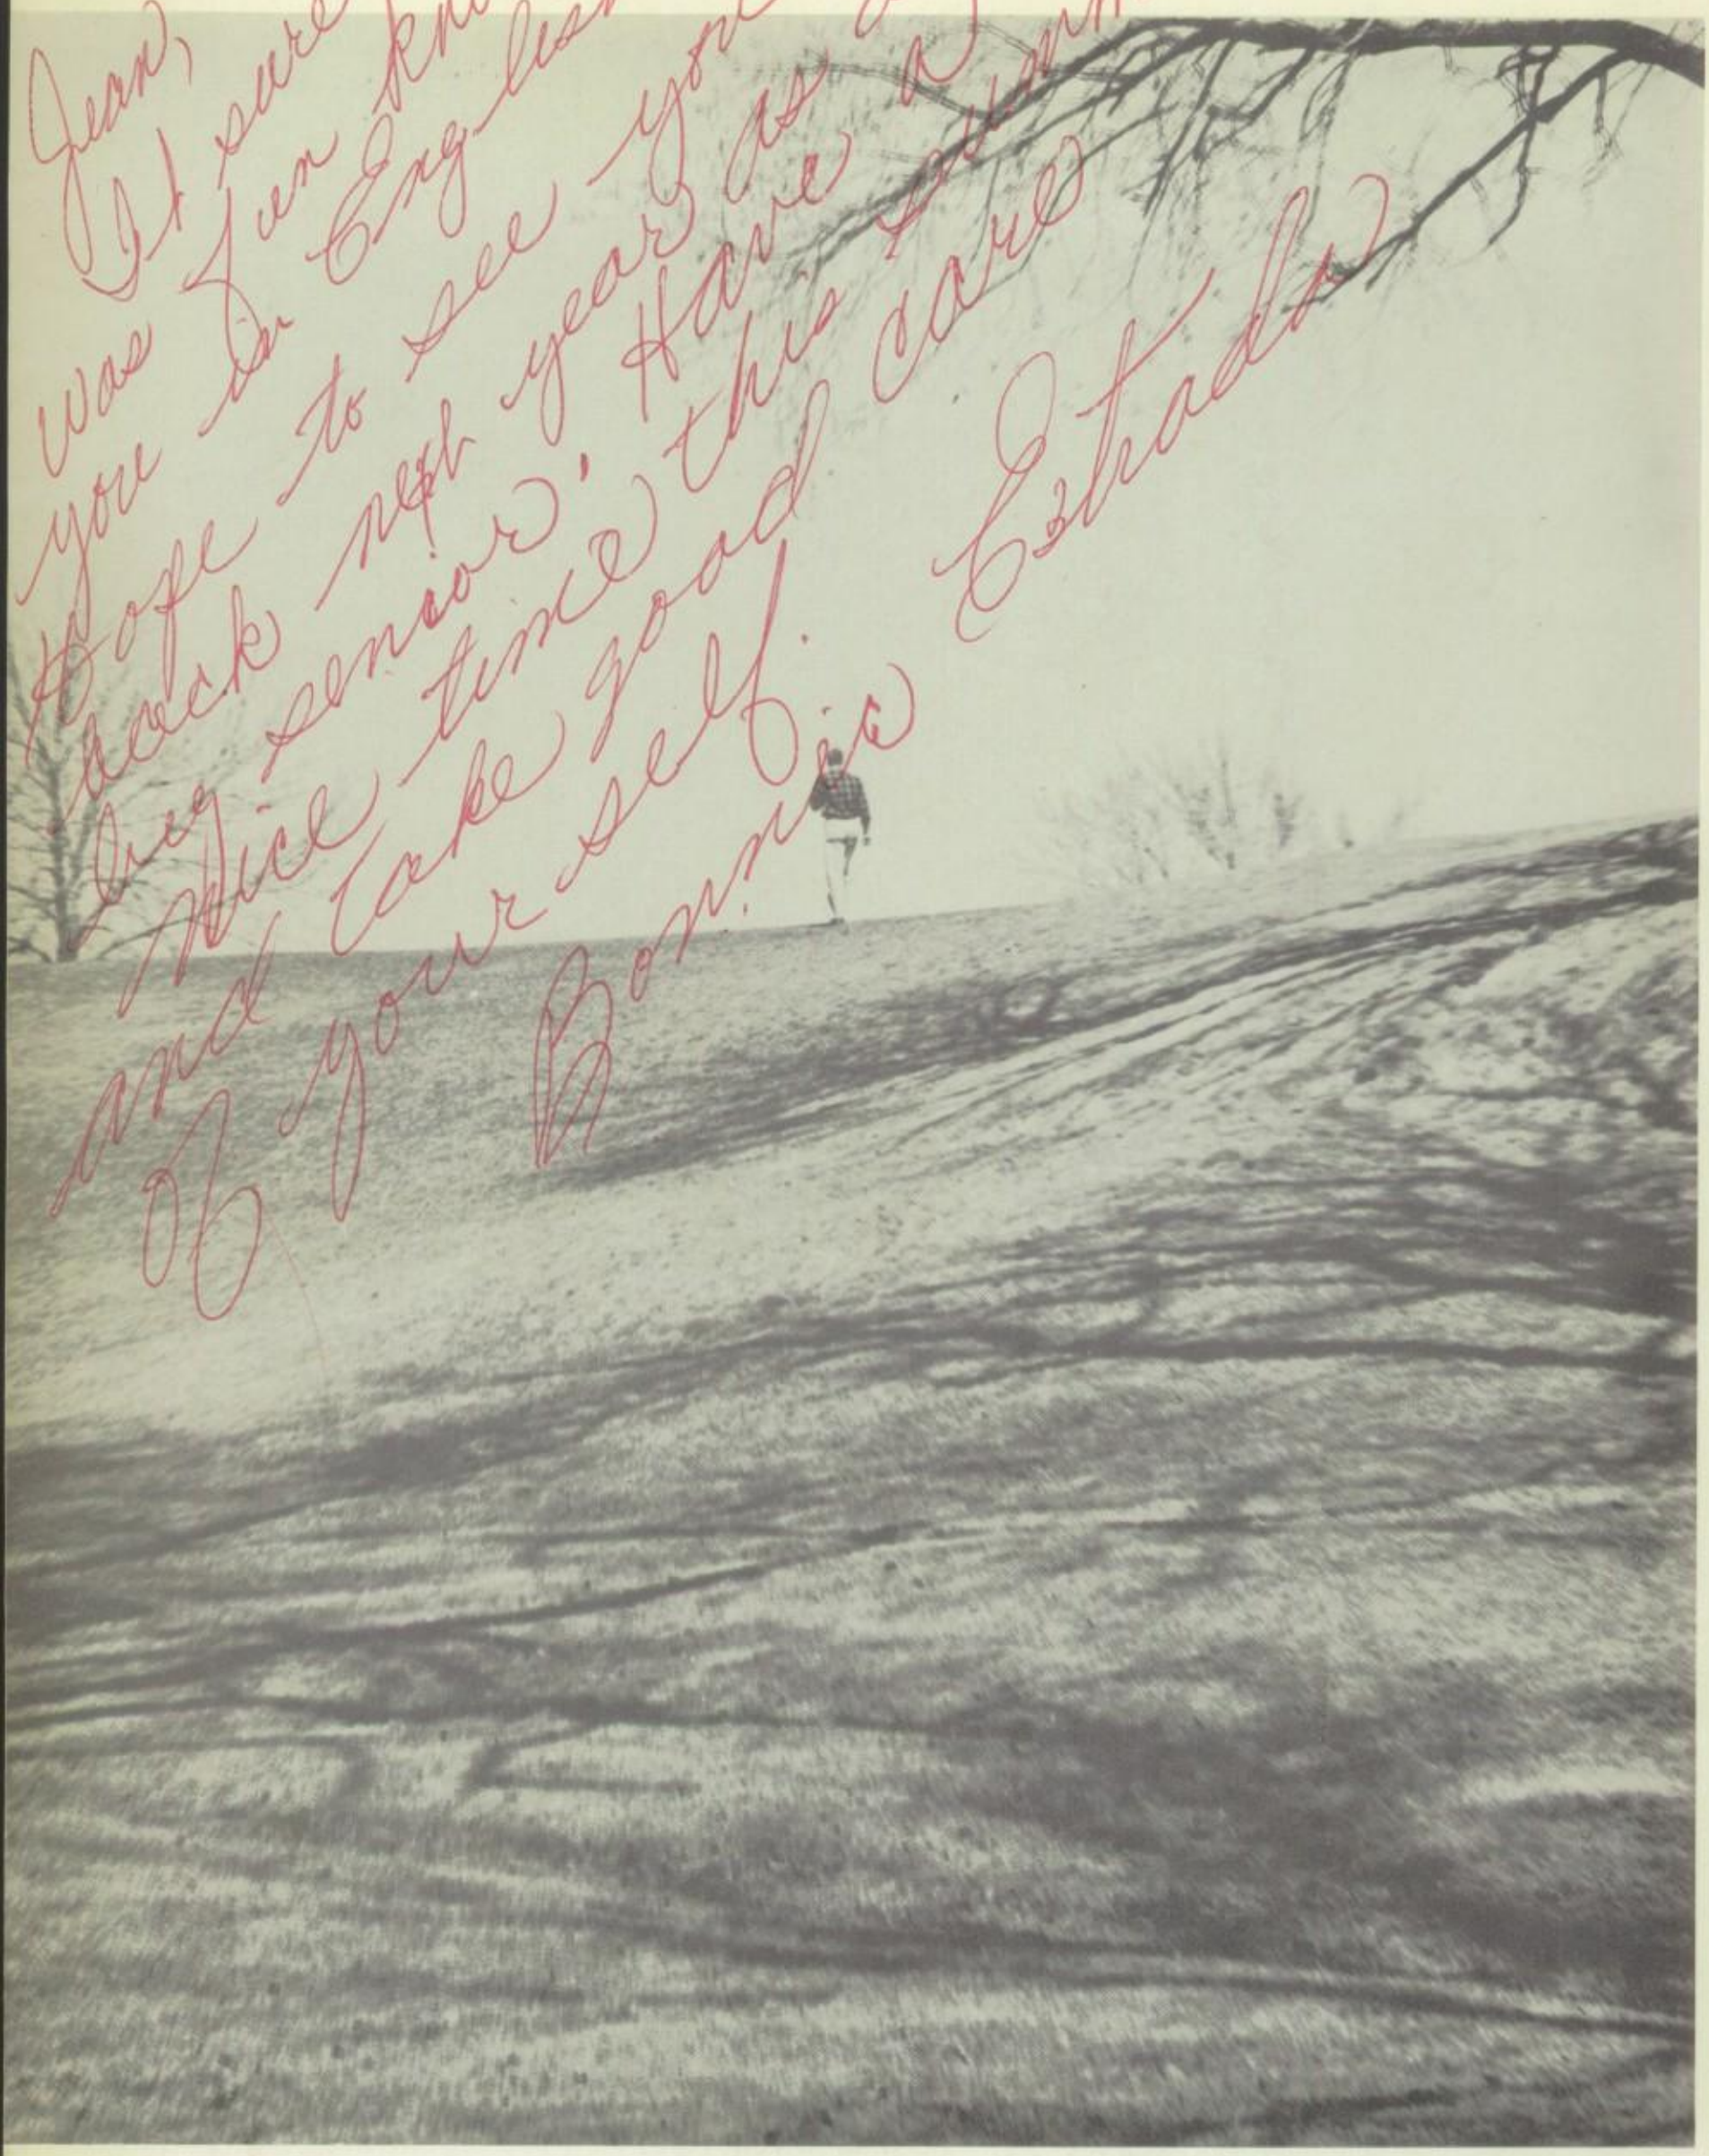
After intermission the Grand March was led by the class officers, Steve Larson, Charles Puckett, Lucille Overstreet, and Gary Hohage.

If it became too warm inside, one could take a walk along the beautiful terrace and cool off before returning to the dance floor.

The honored guests, better known as chaperones, were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Sands, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Raycroft. Also present were Miss D. Tenney, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cumming, Mr. and Mrs. Lammers, and Mr. and Mrs. Lundin.

A most enjoyable and memorable time was had by all who attended.

THE GRAND MARCH IS A MEMORABLE PART OF THE SENIOR PROM



Jean,
I sure was glad to see you in Engliish!
Hope to see you back next year as a senior! Have a nice time this summer and take good care of yourself.

an End and a Beginning

Dear Jean.

Well, your school year is over. and next year you will be a senior. Don't flirt with the boy so much. Well, my God bless you always. Have fun at the Prom. and Good Luck with the boys. your loving Cousin.

Josie "56"

Jean:
Tell sister dear, now you'll be the big Senior. I sure hope you have the best Sr. year + the happiest. I know we've had our fights + disagreements but were growing up + we'll get out of the habit. ha ha Just think the Old Senior will be out for good in about two more days. And the next yr. you'll be there to take my place. Be good Jean + have fun.

Love
Judy

Jean. Lots of Luck in the future. I hope you find your man, if you haven't already.

I hope I see you
this Summer and next year in school
I'll see you for sure.

Dear Jean
Has been a lot of fun knowing you & here hope & see you next year. Your a real kid but if you don't stop throwing kisses & stop throwing wild kisses at the boys and get something done
you'll have a nice summer
Good luck to you remaining two years.
